Notice to Water Users.

STATE ENGINEER'S OFFICE,
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
November 30, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that Fred W. Thackwell, whose postoffice address is Ogden, Utah, has made application in accordance with the requirements of chapter 108, Session Laws of Utah, 1905, to appropriate one (1) cubic foot per second of water from a spring in Cache County, Utah. Said spring is situated at a point which bears north 35 degrees 30 minutes west 1725 feet distant from the southeast corner of section 11, township 8 north, range 2 east, Salt Lake base and meridian, from where it will be conveyed for a distance of 200 feet and there used from January 1 to December 31, inclusive, of each year, to concentrate gold, silver, copper and lead at Thackwell mine in the Paradise Mining District. This use will consume about one half of a cubic foot per second of water and a like amount will be returned to the natural channel of said stream at a point which bears north 25 degrees west 1680 feet from the southeast corner of section 11, township 8 north, range 2 east, Salt Lake base and meridian. This application is designated in the State Engineer's office as No. 900.

All protests against the granting of said application, stating the reasons therefor, must be made by affidavit in duplicate and filed in this office within thirty (30) days after the completion of the publication of this notice.

CALEB TANNER,
State Engineer.

Date of first publication December 5, 1906, date of completion of publication January 4, 1907.

Sayings of Sidney Smith.

On examining some new flowers in the garden, a beautiful girl who was of the party exclaimed, "Oh, Mr. Sydney! this pea will never come to perfection." "Permit me, then," said he, gently taking her hand and walking toward the plant, "to lead perfection to the pea."—The Sunday Magazine.

Heart Muttering.

Undigested food and gas in the stomach, located just below the heart, presses against it and causes heart palpitation. When your heart troubles you in that way take Herbine for a few days. You will soon be all right. 50c a bottle. Sold by Riter Bros. Drug Co.

Why Be Pessimistic?

Like an individual, a nation cannot expect to be healthy or happy which, so to speak, is forever feeling its own pulse and looking at its tongue in the glass. If we cannot alter the conditions of modern life, we can at least make the best of them, and steadily refuse to be inglorious on their account, charm our pessimistic medicine with never so wisely.

FAMOUS OLD TREES

SOME NOTABLE LANDMARKS OF THE COUNTRY.

Under Their Spreading Branches American History Has Been Made—Old Elm at Cambridge Still Standing.

The Elm tree at Philadelphia, under which William Penn made his famous treaty with 19 tribes of barbarians.

The Charter Oak at Hartford, which preserved the written guarantee of the liberties of the colony of Connecticut.

The huge French Apple tree, near Fort Wayne, Ind., where Little Turtle, the great Miami chief, gathered his warriors.

The Elm tree at Cambridge, in the shade of which Washington first took command of the continental army, on a hot summer's day.

The Tulip tree on King's mountain battlefield, in South Carolina, on which ten bloodthirsty Tories were hanged at one time.

The tall Pine tree at Fort Edward, N. Y., under which the beautiful Jane McCrea was slain.

The magnificent Black Walnut tree near Haverstraw, on the Hudson, at which Gen. Wayne mustered his forces at midnight, preparatory to his gallant and successful attack on Stony Point.

The grand Magnolia tree near Charleston, S. C., under which Gen. Lincoln held a council of war previous to surrendering the city.

The great Pecan tree at Villere's plantation, below New Orleans, under which a portion of the remains of Gen. Pakenham was buried.

The Pear trees planted, respectively, by Gov. Endicott of Massachusetts, and Gov. Stuyvesant of New York, more than 200 years ago.

The Frechinian's Oak, or Emmel-pation Oak, Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., under which the slaves of this region first heard read President Lincoln's emancipation proclamation.

The Elliot Oak, of Newton, Mass., under which the apostle, John Elliot, taught the Indians Christianity.

The old Liberty Elm of Boston, planted and dedicated by a schoolmaster to the independence of the colonies, and the rallying point for patriots before, during and after the revolutionary war.

The Burgoyne Elm at Albany, N. Y., planted the day Burgoyne was brought there a prisoner.

The Ash and Tulip trees planted at Mount Vernon by Washington. Sequoia—Palto Alto, Cal.

The lofty Cypress tree in the Dismal swamp, under which Washington reposed one night in his young manhood.

The Cary tree, planted by Alice and Phoebe Cary in 1832, a large and beautiful Sycamore seen from the Hamilton turnpike between College Hill and Mount Pleasant, Hamilton county, Ohio.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home; in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by Riter Bros. Drug Co.

Talk It Over with Your Wife.

There are thousands of families homeless or living in poverty and wretchedness to-day, who could have been living in comfort, in good homes, if the husbands had confided their business affairs to their wives, says Success.

Women are very much better judges of human nature than men. They can detect rascality, deception and insincerity more quickly.

I know business men who would never think of employing a manager or superintendent, or a man for any other important position, or if choosing a partner, without managing in some way to have their wives meet the man and get a chance to estimate him, to read him. They invite the man whom they are considering for an important position to their home for dinner, or to spend a Sunday, before deciding. They want the advantage of that marvelous feminine instinct which goes so directly and unerringly to its mark.

I have known of several instances where a wife had cautioned her husband against having anything to do with a man with whom he was thinking of going into business, but the husband ignored the wife's opinion as silly and disregarded her advice to his great sorrow later, as the man turned out exactly as the wife had predicted.

Stuck Up for Her Sex.

A schoolgirl in a Massachusetts town had often been made to acknowledge the superiority of her brothers. One day her mother remarked upon the apparent utter lack of intelligence in a hen. "You can't teach a hen anything," she said. "They have ruined more of the garden than a drove of cattle would. You can teach a cat, a dog or pig something, but a hen—never!" "Hm!" exclaimed the child indignantly, "I think they know just as much as monsters!"

Fine Art Notes from Paree

Distinction and Difference.
"I ain't got no use for avarice," said Uncle Eben. "but it sho' is safer for a man to hold on to money foolish than it is to spend it foolish."

Has Densest Population.
Bombay claims the greatest density of population in the world, and its claim is only disputed by Agra, also in India. Bombay has 760 persons per acre in certain areas.

The Long-Suffering.
"I am going to learn to play on a horn."
"Gee! You must have a wonderful belief in the patience of your neighbors."—Houston Post.

The Joy of Doing Something.
Consider how, even in the meanest sort of labor, the whole soul of a man is composed into a kind of real harmony the instant he sets himself to work.—Carlyle.

Style Taken from Indians.
The Houtet de Monvill style of hair dressing is not original with the French portrait painter. The Blackfoot Indian chief always wears his hair with a lock over his brow.

Amateur Milkmaid.
"O, James!" exclaimed Mrs. Sittle, "do let's move to the country and keep cows, so we can have nice fresh beef tea every morning!" — Cleveland Leader.

Mushrooms Grown on Sandy Soil.
Many believe that mushrooms are only to be found on low, moist lands, while they have been gathered on the sandy hillsides of Long Island with good results as to quantity and flavor.

King's Human Steed.
The king of Obbo travels on the back of one of his faithful slaves and when he reaches a stream he remains in his seat while his human steed walks through the water.

Immense Force in Frost.
No one has yet been able to construct a vessel which can resist the force of freezing water. Twenty-pound steel shells have been rent as if they were glass.

Use Denatured Alcohol.
Denatured alcohol is used in a hat factory at Manchester, England. The manufacturers use the spirit, recover it, and reutilize the product in their own factory, and use it over again until it is used up.

Enjoyment.
"What do you most enjoy about automobilism?"
"The sense of relief," answered Mr. Cumrox, "when I get to the end of a trip and find that nobody has been hurt."

Mark of Man's Superiority.
God, that all-powerful creator of nature and architect of the world, has impressed man with no character so proper to distinguish him from other animals as by the power of speech.—Quintillian.

Encouraging Him.
"Really," said Mr. Timmid, "I've never dreamed of kissing a girl against her will. I never."
"How fortunate!" exclaimed Miss Patience. "Dreams go by contraries, you know."

Concrete Used in Pantheon.
In these days of increasing use of concrete for building purposes, it is recalled that the Pantheon, in Rome, about 2,000 years old, is covered by a dome over 142 feet in diameter, which is cast in concrete in one solid mass.

Broad Classification.
"What kind of an automobile do you prefer?"
"I know of only two kinds," answered Mr. Cumrox; "those that are running and those that are out of repair."

Slow.
Just to prove how slow the world is to learn, it is only necessary to cite the fact that rich men continue to die thinking they can shut out both their heirs and the lawyers from participation in their fortunes.

Victim of a Confidence Game.
Uncle Josh, fresh from Uporek, had been inspecting the family ice box.
"Henry," he said, "you told me you was gittin' artificial ice. The feller that sells it to you is foolin' you. I've looked at it, and tetchet it, and if it ain't real ice, by gum, I never saw any!"

The Patient Struggle.
Patience and struggle. An earnest use of what we have now and all the time, an earnest discontent until we come to what we ought to be. Are not these what we need? What, in their rich union, we could not get, except in just such a life as this with its delayed completions?—Phillips Brooks.

Barbarous Paris Water.
We are far from blaming the profane of the Seine for warning us that it is dangerous to drink the water that it supplies us without boiling it. The system, in spite of the millions wasted, is absolutely barbarous. When it does not rain we have no water, and when it does rain the water is not drinkable.—From L'Eclair of Paris.

Negative Advantage at Least.
There is this in favor of the automobile, says Mack Cretcher. It doesn't get its tail over the line or shed its hair in your face on a windy day.—Kansas City Journal.

His Last Act a Mean One.
Before committing suicide Dr. Henthailer, a prominent medical man in Budapest, tore up a number of bank notes and set fire to his library of 10,000 books.

Longest Span of Wire.
The longest span of wire in the world is used for a telegraph in India over the river Ristuah. It is more than 6,000 feet, and is stretched between two hills, 1,200 feet high.

Driver Paid for Fun.
A motor car driver in London the other day charged and scattered like chaff a whole troop of the Life Guards, but paid eight dollars the next day in the police court for his victory.

Seer's Mistake.
A Washington seer predicted not long ago that the earth would be destroyed during the present week. Now he has lost his reputation. The wise seer always predicts the destruction of the earth at least a million years in the future.

The Mark of the Strong.
The tendency to persevere, to persist in spite of hindrance, discouragements and impossibilities—it is this that in all things distinguishes the strong soul from the weak.—Thomas Carlyle.

The Situation.
"Queer situation in Cuba, just now."
"What's queer about it?"
"If the United States government decides to annex it, then its own government will be forced to an exit, too."

Where, Indeed?
A New Jersey high school principal who was accused of hugging and kissing his pretty girl pupils has resigned to "accept a more congenial position." But where could he find a more congenial position than that?—Chicago Journal.

Ports on the Great Lakes.
Five cities in the United States which have upwards of 250,000 inhabitants are ports of the great lakes. There are only five above that limit on the Atlantic coast, from the Bay of Fundy to the Florida strait.

Life's Struggles and Victories.
And this is life—temptation, trial, struggle, conflict, possibly victory—the strenuous life! You cannot cowardly give it up. And you need all the help you can have; and the only adequate help is Jesus Christ.—Henry C. King.

Why Is Gossip.
Some people fall into the very real crime of talking about their neighbors, not so much out of their badness of heart, as out of their anxiety to avoid the merely conventional crime of not saying anything when they are in company.—Puck.

Campaign Material.
"What I want to give the people," exclaimed the orator, "is a speech that contains facts and figures."
"You are wrong," answered Senator Sorghum. "Human nature is the same in politics as everywhere else. If you wait to get 'em really interested, give 'em gossip."

Why He Wanted Her.
"Stop!" commanded Miss Nurox, with a disdainful sniff. "The idea of your proposing to a lady in my station of life. You ought to know better!"
"Well!" replied Mr. Hunter, "I do know better, but not richer."

Looking Forward.
"Have you any watches with water-proof cases?" asked the young man.
"No," replied the jeweler. "What is your object in wanting a water-proof watch?"
"Oh, I may have occasion to soak it occasionally," answered the young man.

True Aim in Living.
Not the making of a fine career, but the simple doing of God's will, is the one true aim in living. Thus only can we achieve real success. If we do this though we fall in the earthly race we shall not fail in God's sight.—Rev. J. R. Miller, D.D.

In Dreamland.
A French barrister, whose client had the misfortune to be found guilty, appealed on the ground that during the trial a jurymen was asleep. The court of Cassation has held that the jurymen, being asleep, was technically not present during the hearing, and has quashed the verdict and ordered a new trial.

First Canaries in Europe.
The first hint that can be found in Europe of the forebears of our canaries who "discourse sweet music" to us winter and summer alike, is in Spain, where we are told that in 1478 some specimens were brought by Heary, the navigator, on his return from one of his voyages, during which he landed at the Canary islands.
